

Explication of “Forever at His side to walk”

Forever at His side to walk—

[ Expression of her lifelong devotion to her beloved man ]

The smaller of the two!

[ A sense of selflessness ]

Brain of His Brain—

Blood of His Blood—

Two lives—One Being—now—

[ Implies a sense of unity, suggesting that they are now like one being. ]

Forever of His fate to taste—

If grief—the largest part—

If joy—to put my piece away

For that beloved Heart—

[ The writer is willing to bear it all for the sake of the beloved person. ]

All life—to know each other—

Whom we can never learn—

[ Even though they have an intimate bond, there are still some aspects of their inner selves that remain a mystery. ]

And bye and bye—a Change—

Called Heaven—

[ Eternal commitment and love ]

Rapt Neighborhoods of Men—

Just finding out—what puzzled us—

Without the lexicon!

[ Only in heaven the most mysterious aspects of themselves will be found ]
